LATOYA BROWN; et al.

PLAINTIFFS

v.

Civ. No. 3:17cv347-CWR-LRA

MADISON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI; et al.

DEFENDANTS

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR INTERIM EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND

Defendants, Madison County, Mississippi, and Sheriff Randall C. Tucker, collectively “defendants,” by and through counsel, respectfully move for an interim extension of time to respond to plaintiffs’ various recent filings and would show unto the Court the following in support thereof:¹

1. On February 13, 2019 the Court set a telephonic hearing on defendants’ motion for a temporary stay of deadlines or, in the alternative, for an extension of time to take place on February 20, 2019. In that motion, defendants requested that this Court temporarily stay their deadline to respond to plaintiffs’ amended complaint [Dkt. #342], plaintiffs’ second motion for class certification [Dkt. #343] and plaintiffs’ motion for leave to file second amended complaint [Dkt. #345] while the Court considered defendants’ request that this Court convene a settlement conference. [Dkt. #349]. Without a stay or an extension, defendants responses to those filings are due February 19, 2019, the day before this Court’s hearing on defendants’ motion for a temporary stay.

2. It is defendants’ understanding that plaintiffs oppose the above request for a temporary stay or a thirty-day extension of time to respond. However, plaintiffs have indicated in

February 13, 2019, correspondence sent to Magistrate Judge Linda Anderson's chambers that they are agreeable to an interim, one-week extension of defendants time to respond to plaintiffs' various filings.

3. Accordingly, pending a ruling on defendants' motion for a temporary stay [Dkt. #349], defendants request that the Court grant defendants an interim, one-week extension of time to respond to plaintiffs' various filings listed above. If granted, the interim extension would allow defendants until February 26, 2019, to respond to plaintiffs filings and likewise grant the Court sufficient time to consider defendants' requested relief in its motion for a temporary stay.

4. Undersigned counsel for defendants has confirmed with counsel for plaintiffs that the relief requested in this motion is unopposed by plaintiffs.

Respectfully submitted this 14th day of February, 2019.
